Job Description

To be a Trustee of an organisation is an exciting and fulfilling role. The most effective Boards are ones which benefit from individuals from a diverse range of backgrounds, experiences and skill sets. The role of a Trustee is to ensure that Chaffinch fulfils its duty to its beneficiaries and delivers on our vision, mission and values.

Chaffinch is a registered charity (1173464, England & Wales) working with a pre-existing community project “Future Stars Development and Rescue Centre” in Kibera, Kenya, with the aim of enabling the centre to fulfil its own objectives. There is an essential understanding that the role of Chaffinch is to support the local staff who are acknowledged as capable of delivering what is needed when enabled to do so.

“Future Stars Development and Rescue Centre” provides a completely free primary education to children, living in the Kibera slum, who would otherwise be unable to access education. The centre is currently providing this education to 70 children including many children from single-parent families where HIV/AIDS has had a devastating impact. By providing this free education, the children increase their future prospects in terms of employment and personal development.

In addition to the free school, “Future Stars Development and Rescue Centre” provides a safe home for children and young people who currently have nowhere else to live. This includes recently orphaned children, street children identified as ready to return to a structured lifestyle, abandoned children, and those at risk of abuse or exploitation. The centre is not a children’s home and efforts are made to find relatives within Kenya who are willing and able to care for each child. There are currently 20 residents aged between 6 and 18 years.

A feeding programme also operates at the centre, allowing for the provision of adequate nutrition to children registered in the centre’s school who would otherwise be at risk of starvation or malnutrition.

Chaffinch currently funds the feeding programme, school supplies, school fees for older residential children to attend High School, and necessary medical expenses plus incidentals. Chaffinch has also undertaken some larger projects such as the construction of a toilet block (a Crowdfunded project) and several new classrooms. An annual Christmas celebration/party has also been an important focus for Chaffinch since its foundation.

The vision of Chaffinch is to support “Future Stars Development and Rescue Centre” to become a self-sustaining project, run exclusively by Kenyan staff who have the skills necessary to provide for the children and young people of Kibera.

The statutory duties of a trustee are:

- To ensure the organisation complies with its governing document.
- To ensure that the organisation pursues its objectives as defined in its governing document.
- To ensure the organisation applies its resources exclusively in pursuance of its objectives - the charity must not spend money on activities which are not included in its own objectives, no matter how 'charitable' and 'worthwhile' those activities are.
- To contribute actively to the Board of Trustees' role in giving firm strategic direction to the organisation, setting overall policy, defining goals and setting targets and evaluating performance against agreed targets.
- To safeguard the good name and values of the organisation.
- To ensure the effective and efficient administration of the organisation.
- To ensure the financial stability of the organisation.
- To protect and manage the property of the organisation and to ensure the proper investment of the organisation's funds.

In addition, with other trustees, to hold the charity “in trust” for current and future beneficiaries by:

- Ensuring that the charity has a clear vision, mission and strategic direction and is focused on achieving these.
- Being responsible for the performance of the charity and for its “corporate” behaviour; ensuring that the charity complies with all legal and regulatory requirements.
- Acting as guardians of the charity’s assets, both tangible and intangible, taking all due care over their security, deployment and proper application.
- Ensuring that the charity’s governance is of the highest possible standard.

As well as the various statutory duties, any trustee should make full use of any specific skills, knowledge or experience to help the board make good decisions.

Length of appointment

Trustees are elected for a period until the Annual General Meeting following appointment and may be re-elected for further periods of 1 year, with no restriction on terms served.
